

e-Content of Dr. V. K. Das

Associate Professor

Department of Economics

Patna College

(BA II, Paper IV)

Topic- Industrial Revolution in Great Britain (1750-1850)

Chief characteristics of Industrial Revolution

1. Engineering Industry development
2. Iron and Steel development
3. Coal Industry development
4. Textile Industry development
5. Chemical Industry development
6. Transportation development

Causes of Industrial Revolution in Great Britain

1. Geographical conditions of Great Britain
2. Improvement of Science and Technology
3. Availability of Coal and Iron
4. Development of Transportation
5. Banking System development
6. Supportive Policy of Government
7. Personal Freedom
8. Marine Power
9. No fear of foreign aggression
10. Plundering of Wealth from Colonies